SUNDAY, JANUARY 25, 1874.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Whooping cough is afflicting Nashville.

Prisoners walk out the Wilson county jail without half trying.

Tarboro is to receive $300 from the Peabody Fund for her schools.

The Good Templars of Newbern have placed an organ in their lodge room.

The Pajoy House on Masonboro Sound, was destroyed by fire on Saturday before last.

The house and barn of Mr. Olander Heaton, near Greenville, was recently destroyed by fire.

About seventy pieces of property were sold in Wilmington on Thursday for non-payment of taxes.

A colored man by the name of Woodard was jailed in Wilson the other day on the charge of stealing cotton.

Freddie Angell, a young boy, recently died in Newbern from lock-jaw, caused by running a splinter in his hand.

L. D. Chambers, one of the Tennessee gang of counterfeiters, has been arrested and lodged in jail at Charlotte.

The last term of the New Hanover County Superior Court made numerous additions to the inmates of the Penitentiary.

Rocky Mount requires perambulating cattle to pay a poll tax of 50 cents for the privilege of making and returning calls.

Mr. J. R. Stewart has resigned the lucrative office of Mayor of Baltimore, and the name of his fortunate successor is Mr. Jesse Herbert.

A train of cars at Rocky Mount the other day supplied that community liberally with good pork sausage meat. A lot of pigs were run over and killed.

Mr. W. W. Parker has retired from the Secretaryship of the Treasury of Rocky Mount. Mr. J. H. Thos. has been appointed to succeed to the duties and responsibilities of that difficult office.

Morganton had a narrow escape from destruction by fire on Saturday before last. The store of Mr. J. J. Davis caught, and had not the flames been promptly suppressed, the principal part of the town would have been destroyed.

John Hurt, of Linville township, Burke county, laboring under the impression that a respectable white woman in the neighborhood had bewitched him, threatened to shoot her. The woman had him arrested and bound over. The trial was a rich one.

&c., &c.

Our Senior Partner has just returned from New York where he has been for several days making purchases at panic prices, to supply the demand in our stock made by our unexpectedly good trade this season. In returning our thanks to our patrons, we say to them and the public, that our late purchases were made at a very great decline, and that we are now selling our stock at such prices as to justify us in saying that such bargains have not been offered since the war.

We have a good supply of Burt's, Ziegler's and Bay State hand-made shoes and gaiters for Ladies, Misses and Children. Also, for gentlemen, Canfield's, Porter, & Co's, and Burt's single and double soled calf gaiters and boots, which we offer at very low prices. All wishing to purchase will not regret calling and examining our stock and prices. We sell for CASH and have fixed our prices on a cash basis. Therefore those buying of us do not help near any risks for bad and slow debts. Very liberal prices to merchants buying in this market.

We have just received some very late styles of hats, including "p. ra. Stewards, Chesterfield and Clemenine."

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

NOON DISPATCHES.

LOUISIANA MATTERS.

President Grant and the Louisiana difficulties—It is thought a New Election will be held.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Unless the President changes his mind, he will send a message to Congress on Monday on the Louisiana affairs. He will plead that the Congress has been a tacit endorsement of Attorney General Williams' tactics toward that State. The proposed election bill provides that it shall be conducted by a Congressional Commission of two Representatives and one Senator. If the Democrats can be brought to support this measure, its passage is certain, but they are loathe to renew reconstruction. It may be stated that the Democrats are disposed to hide themselves behind the constitutional provision about securing to each State a Republican form of government. The best opinion is that there will be a new election, and that Judge Durell will not be impeached.

The English Parliament Dissolved.

LONDON, January 24.—Parliament has been dissolved by royal decree. Gladstone, in an address, says that since the defeat upon the Irish Equitation Bill, the Ministry had not sufficient power to carry out the great legislative measures, hence the appeal to the people.

The new Parliamentary election occurs within thirty-five days.

The German Free Thinkers.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—A mass-meeting of working men called by German free thinkers proved a failure. Under the advice of the police, the proprietor of the hall withheld the keys. Two thousand of the free thinkers then proceeded to another hall and authorized the officials to engage Cooper Institute for a mass-meeting.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The President on Louisiana Affairs—He is inclined to the Opinion that Congress has no Right to interfere—A bill has been sent to Congress on Monday—Judge Waite to Qualify in Two Weeks—Sheridan says the Army must be increased—More of the Haywood and Brass Hatton Rate for Louisiana.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Gov. Herbert had a free conversation with the President this morning. Governor Herbert's impression is that the President does not desire a new election in Louisiana, and that he doubts the power of Congress to interfere after a State has been reconstructed. It was still the President's intention to address a message to Congress upon Louisiana affairs on Monday.

Waite will qualify as Chief Justice in two weeks.

Gen. Phil. Sheridan is here. He says that the army must be increased, and the army must be increased.

The President's appointments to West Point cadetship are confined to kinsmen of army officers.

It is plausibly reported that a bill has been prepared affecting the Judicial Districts, which will unseat all the present District Judges.

It was stated later in the day, that the Louisiana bill has been altered so that instead of having the election conducted under a Congressional Commission, it will be managed by a Commission appointed by the President. It is supposed that this Commission will be composed of military men.

The Mississippi State Grants—Its Views on the Transportation Company.

KALAMAZOO, Miss., Jan. 24.—The State Grants, which has been in session here for several days, has adjourned. The report of the Committee on Transportation is to the effect, that Railroads are amenable to State regulations as much as plank and gravel road companies, and that the Legislature has as much right to regulate their charges as to fix turnpike tolls, or charges on millers for grinding grain. Accompanying the report of the committee is the following resolution:

Resolved, That while we deprecate any and all attempts to cripple or destroy railroad interests, we would remind them that our interests are identical. We implore them not to kill the goose that lays the golden egg, by taxing us exorbitant rates to enable them to compete with other great trunk lines leading from the West to the East.

The other resolutions deprecate class legislation, and declare that the public lands should be devoted rigidly to the purposes of actual settlement.

The London Papers on Gladstone's Address at the Dissolution of Parliament.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—The Times of this morning, in commenting on the address of Gladstone announcing the dissolution of Parliament, says:

"The document reflects the characteristics of the genius of its author." The Times also doubts the wisdom of the repeal of the income tax promised by the Premier. The Post says that the Premier almost amounts to a coup d'etat.

The Standard is confident of a Conservative majority in the elections, and severely condemns the suddenness of the announcement of the dissolution.

All the journals agree upon the popularity of the financial measures promised in the address.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—For the Southern States, east of the Mississippi river, colder and generally clear weather will prevail, with continued high barometer and northwesterly to northeasterly winds from the Ohio Valley, and thence northward over the upper lake region and northwesterly to Minnesota clear or partly cloudy weather, with low temperature, and northwesterly to southerly winds.

Bank Statement.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—Loans decreased $1,000,000. Specie increased $2,000,000. Legal tenders increased $1,000,000. Deposits increased $1,000,000.
